I returned from my vacation yesterday and received your letters of February 20th and February 26th. Your recommendations of personnel have been referred to our personnel department. Your reference to the

has been sent to the office of General Smith who incidentally is now away on his vacation, and I myself shall look into the matter of the Russian-speaking young men who have been aided by the Many thanks for your continuing interest in our work and be sure to drop in to see me when and if you are in Washington.

With best personal regards,

Very sincerely,
